Going Too Far Jennifer Echols

In Going Too Far, Jennifer Echols has crafted a compelling story about the connection between two characters who are, in some ways, the very antithesis of each other. Meg won't be tied down, literally. Resistant to plans,

Book Review: Going Too Far by Jennifer Echols

Going Too Far Author: Jennifer Echols.

Chapter 1 "That's the worst idea I ever heard," I told Eric. Then I took another sip of beer and swallowed. "Let's do it." "Meg," Tiffany called after me. But I was already out the door of Eric's Beamer. My beer sloshed onto the gravel as I led the way across the dark clearing to the railroad bridge.

Going Too Far by Jennifer Echols is a perfect example of when a romantic teen novel can be done oh-so right. A fresh storyline; Meg gets caught, trespassing and drunk, and is made to spend her spring break riding around with (spunky) tough cop John on the night shift for the week to learn her lesson.
