responding to content, language and dramatic form. Part One: Shakespeare in Context explores the wider contexts of Shakespeare's world and the world of the play. Topics include; Shakespeare's life and works; Elizabethan theatre; religion, plague and conflict in Elizabethan society; tragedy, and the Italian setting of the play. Part Two: Characterisation and Themes considers the plot, Shakespeare's characterisation and the important themes developed in the play. Part Three: Detailed textual analysis provides a comprehensive and detailed scene-by-scene analysis of language, character development and dramatic presentation. Links will be made to wider contexts and form, structure and language. Part Four: Language, Structure and Stagecraft explores Shakespeare's use of form, structure and language, and how he achieves particular effects. Part Five: Responding to the Play supports students in developing informed personal responses, with sections on exam responses and how to approach non-exam assessment or coursework.

This updated edition is designed to support students in study and revision for the new GCSE (9-1) English Literature exams.

A tragedy written early in the career of playwright William Shakespeare about two young 'star-crossed lovers' whose deaths ultimately unite their feuding families. It was among Shakespeare's most popular plays during his lifetime and is one of his most frequently performed plays. Today, the title characters are regarded as archetypal young lovers. She is only fourteen, he is only a few years older. Their families are bitter enemies, sworn to hatred. Yet Romeo and Juliet meet and fall passionately in love. Defying their parents' wishes, they are secretly married, but their brief happiness is shattered by fate.

The front lines of World War I may be in the battle-scarred fields of France, but inside this dugout the essence of England is intimately mixed with the hard-packed dirt of the walls and floor. Captain Stanhope will stand no shirking from the men in his command-- or from himself. After three years in and around the trenches, he is utterly exhausted and absolutely terrified. When Raleigh, a junior schoolmate from home, gets posted to Stanhope's company, the poor man is badly shaken. Hero worship is for sunny afternoons on the cricket pitch and leisurely discussions of Keats-- not for the horrors of war. Stanhope wants to believe Raleigh is just another soldier in the crowd. He tries to lose sight of him among Osborne, the former schoolmaster, Trotter, the proud gardener showing off photos of his prize hollyhocks, and the good-humored Hardy. Yet, when the long-anticipated enemy attack explodes around them, Stanhope and Raleigh must come to terms with the age-old tragedy of battle.
