A pulpit is a raised stand for preachers in a Christian church. The origin of the word is the Latin pulpitum. The traditional pulpit is raised well above the surrounding floor for audibility and visibility, accessed by steps, with sides coming to about waist height. From the late medieval period onwards, pulpits have often had a canopy known as the sounding board, tester or abat-voix above and sometimes also behind the speaker, normally in wood. Though sometimes highly decorated, this is not pur

Pulpit - Wikipedia
The use of some sort of pulpit dates back to Old Testament times. The King James Version of Nehemiah 8:4 reads, " And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose. ". The first-century Christian churches did not use pulpits at all. They met in homes.
